

Art Project Conducted By Eighth Grade

The students of Mrs. Lucile Hardcastle's eighth grade class are conducting a project, Experiments With Art, at the Torrance Elementary school, the results of which are displayed on the bulletin boards of the school.

The art project features modernistic design in chalk, experimental colors in chalk, experimental colors and design in cloth, portrait drawings, water colors, and graph paper designs.

On one bulletin board is a secretive valentine in which a "cartoonish" fellow, holding a sign "Do Not Open" is attracting the attention of all who pass. The temptation being great—the valentine is opened and a traditional greeting is given to each who peeks.

The display will change from time to time, giving many students an opportunity to exhibit their artistry. Students having work on display this week are Michael Mullen, Pedro Moreno, Barbara Anderson, Davit Hill, Tommy Kling, Shirley Sauve, Carole Moore, Sharon Stephenson, Mary Margaret Blount, Marsha Tappin, Diane Wickers and Matthew Somerville; assisting these students in display arrangements was Joyce Gordon.

IF YOUR POOCH IS 100

Are there any canine centenarians in this area?

A dog research organization in New York is most anxious to know of them and has asked the cooperation of the Torrance Press in locating them. They are being sought in connection with a projected scientific study that may mean much to the greater well-being of dogs and perhaps also of humans.

To qualify as a "canine centenarian" a dog must be at least 17 years of age, according to the Gaines Dog Research Center. (Seventeen years in the life of a dog is believed to be roughly equivalent to 100 in a human.)

Persons owning or knowing of dogs 17 years old and over, whose exact age can be substantiated, should drop a postcard to the Gaines Dog Research Center, 250 Park Avenue, New York 17, New York, listing the breed, sex, date of birth or when acquired, present age, and the name and address of the owner.

The Center will acknowledge each such card by forwarding a questionnaire designed to ascertain the essential vital data required for the scientific study.

BURGERS BEAT FRANK'S

Allen's Burgers' basketball team registered a 64-23 triumph over Frank's Furniture's melon tossers in the first game of the Torrance Recreation adult league play last week in the Torrance High School boys' gym.

Forward Bill Baron of the winners, hit for 16 points to continue his torrid scoring pace and top honors for the game. Forward Chuck Hawley centered the hoop for 8 counters to do the mostest for the losers.

In the second game, forward John Sousa sizzled the nets for 22 points to pace All's Knolls Drugs to 78-16 win over the hapless Blue Devil five and set a new single game team total record for this season.

Their 78 points erased Allen's mark of 75 set January 18 against these same Blue Devils. Manager Chic Cicchini injected himself into the fray in the fourth period and picked up six quick points to top the losers' scoring attack.

Cityworkers Local No. 1135 outscored Treskes Men's Shop in every period to win going away by a 56-37 score. Forward Ivan Keys of the winners starred in the scoring department, garnering 22 points on eight good free tries and seven field goals.

Forward Norm Chambers, his brother Bob, at center, and Guard Darl Mead shared the scoring spotlight for the losers, potting eight digits apiece.

MADRONA STRESSES SAFETY

Madrone Elementary School children are learning how to be safe at home as well as at school.

Each child has been given a check list, prepared by the American Red Cross, to take home, where with the help of their parents, they can check such areas as safety at school, to and from school, in the streets, at play, and at home.

The check list is designed not only to help the child emphasize safety at all times but to also help the parents keep themselves safe.

The March meeting of the Madrona Parent Teacher Association will be centered around the Safety Theme and will include a presentation by children and an interesting display of safety posters done by children of the various classes.

EC College Dream Comes True For Korean Student

Culminating an 18 months' struggle with red tape and huge distances, in Kwan Hwang, 26-year-old Korean student, realized his fondest dream when he arrived in the United States early Tuesday morning to continue his education at El Camino college.

Hwang departed from Seoul, Korea, aboard a Northwest Airline's Flagship and upon arriving in Tokyo, Japan, he boarded a Pan American Clipper and arrived at the Los Angeles International Airport at 7 a.m., January 18.

First Impression
His first impression of the United States was that everything was "strange and wonderful." He said that he was astounded at the great number of cars owned by students at El Camino. At Seoul National university, where Hwang majored in Law for one year, only the president of the university was fortunate enough to own a car.

Hwang intends to major in International Relations and political science at El Camino with a position in the State Department of Korea as his ultimate goal.

While Hwang was with the Republic of Korea, 5th Infantry Division, during the recent Korean conflict, he learned of El Camino college from an American soldier, George Bisbara, who was a former student. This information launched Hwang on an 18 month correspondence with El Camino officials.

Encouraged
Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel, engaged in the prolonged correspondence with Hwang and gave needed information and encouragement. With help and sponsorship from the Gardena Rotary club, Hwang finally waded through all necessary red tape and was admitted into the United States.

Hwang, who was attached for three years to the Belgian army, left his parents, one brother, and two sisters behind in Korea. He indicated that he would probably transfer to an American university for upper division work upon completion of requirements at El Camino.

Hwang demonstrated his appreciation to Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel at El Camino, Hamilton M. Madadaford, an assistant director, and President Geoffrey Borke at the Gardena Rotary club by presenting each tokens from his native country.

Dining in the El Camino cafeteria shortly after his arrival Tuesday, Hwang glanced at a gentleman at a near-by table. "Dr. Harless?" he asked. He had identified the college director of instruction from the college catalog carefully memorized prior to his 7000-mile trip from Seoul to El Camino. Every building and every administrator was known to the former Korean Sergeant.
